OUR ENTIRE WHOLESALE AND RETAIL STOCKS AT AN ENORMOUS SACRIFICE.

THE CHOICE OF THE SEASON'S PRODUCTS AT ONLY A FRACTION OF THEIR ACTUAL VALUE. NO MATTER WHETHER IT IS 25, 50, OR 75 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR, THE STOCK SHALL BE MOVED IMMEDIATELY.

WE WILL NOT STOP AT ANYTHING. LOSSES WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED.

TAKE NOTICE. Leaving out all consideration of the cause or causes that has contributed to the present paralysis of trade, or the solution of problems that might lead to its improvement, the cold facts stand out as keen as steel that the business of the entire country is facing a condition of unparalleled stagnation, from which it can recover itself only in time. Let us all hope that the time may be short, but in a business so vast as ours, we cannot take any chances, and so we must take a strong method to meet a present condition.

LET THE FUTURE MARKETS OF THE COUNTRY BRING FORTH WHAT IT MAY WE MEAN TO BE PREPARED FOR IT.

And will on Monday morning throw our entire stock upon the market of Michigan at startling prices. It will pay ladies to come from every quarter of Michigan and to come promptly. Not a single piece of goods will be kept back, and those familiar with our stock, its character and its immensity will understand what an opportunity is offered.

THE BOSTON STORE.

All hotels, boarding houses and charitable institutions of every kind will find the present a golden opportunity. Commencing at 8 o'clock Monday morning every lady in Grand Rapids and adjacent to it should be present as near to this hour as possible. Country customers remitting money orders for goods can rely upon the best judgment and careful attention.

SPECIAL NOTE. In a gigantic sale of this kind it will easily be understood how utterly impossible it is to give complete quotations. We have given fair examples of the reductions from every department, without the slightest exaggeration, and the stocks will be found in every instance complete.

A sale of such a sweeping character as the one we commence tomorrow morning is sure to cause a great deal of excitement and talk among all classes. But let it be distinctly understood that we have absolute confidence in the return of future prosperous times. We are thoroughly able to sustain the loss, and much prefer to meet the markets of the country on their basis of value as conditions may create them. We have made special provision by the Security Delivery Co., of this city for the delivery of all packages as promptly as possible. We urge upon all ladies to do as much trading as possible in the forenoon. No goods can possibly be sent out on approval during this sale, but any article purchased if found unsatisfactory in any way, if returned at once, money will be cheerfully refunded.
